

Resolution No. 2761

A Resolution to endorse the Central Oregon Community College Bond Measure (9-73) on the November 3, 2009 ballot.

WHEREAS, the Central Oregon Community College Board of Directors has placed a bond measure on the November 3, 2009 ballot, and;

WHEREAS, passage of this measure assures more educational opportunities for residents of the City of Bend, and;

WHEREAS, passage of this measure will result in the construction of new health careers and science buildings on the COCC Bend campus, to broaden student opportunities and support regional health care, and;

WHEREAS, renovations financed by passage of this measure would add capacity for the College as it serves record numbers of students from throughout the District, and;

WHEREAS, the cost for these important improvements will result in a cost of less than $2 per month for the average homeowner;

THEREFORE, the Bend City Council finds that endorsement of the Central Oregon Community College Bond Measure request would be in the best interest of the citizens of Bend and does hereby endorse the COCC Measure on the November 3, 2009 election ballot.

Adopted by the City Council the 7th day of October, 2009.
