

JEFFERSON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT 509-J

Resolution #10-19

A Resolution to Endorse the Central Oregon Community College Bond Measure on the November 3, 2009 Ballot.

WHEREAS, the Central Oregon Community College Board of Directors has included construction of a Jefferson County Campus as part of the bond measure on the November 3, 2009 ballot, and;

WHEREAS, passage of this measure assures more educational opportunities for residents of the Jefferson County, and;

WHEREAS, construction would be on land being donated to the College by the Bean Foundation, and:

WHEREAS, passage of this measure will result in the construction of new health careers and science buildings on the COCC Bend campus, to broaden student opportunities and support regional health care, and;

WHEREAS, passage will also result in the construction of a Technology Center on the COCC Campus in Redmond to serve students and businesses;

WHEREAS, renovations financed by passage of this measure would add capacity for the College as it serves record numbers of students from throughout the District, and;

WHEREAS, the cost for these important improvements will result in a cost of less than $2 per month for the average homeowner;

THEREFORE, the Jefferson County School Board finds that endorsement of the Central Oregon Community College Bond Measure request would be in the best interest of current and former Jefferson County school district students and does hereby endorse the COCC Measure on the November 3, 2009 election ballot.

Adopted at the School Board meeting of September 28, 2009.

Chair, Board of Directors
